FOR SCHOFIELD

Contained in President Cleveland's Letter Announcing the Retirement

sen. Miles Succeeds to the Command of the Army-Fought His Way from the Ranks.

President Cleveland yesterday issued an order retiring Lieut. Gen. Schofield and speaking in the highest terms of the officer. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, now in command of the Department of the East at Governor's Island, will succeed to the command of the army, but the title of lientenant general expires with Gen. Schofield's retirement.

of peace by his splendid and successful performance of civin as well as military duty.

"Lieut. Gen. Schoffeld's career, exhibiting an univarying love for his profession, a zealous care for its honor and good name, a just apprehension of the subordination it exacts, and a constant manifestation of the best traits of true Americanism, furnishes to the Army an example of lestinable value, and should teach all our people that the highest soldierly qualities are built upon the feenest sense of the obligations belonging to good citizenship.

"GROVER CLEVELAND."

"GROVER CLEVELAND."

Nelson Appleton Miles, was born at Westminster, Mass., in 1839, and with the exception of Gen. Sheridan, is the youngest afficer that ever held that position.

His appointment possesses more than ordinary interest from the fact that he is the first occupant of the high office who has not been graduated from the West Point Military Academy. It can literally be said that he fought his way up the ladder.

The outbreak of the war found him a clerk in a crockery store in Boston. After asix months' course in a temporary military school in that city, which was paid for The President's letter is as follows:

"Executive Mansion.

"Washington, Sept. 30, 1895.

"Lieut. Gen. John M. Schofield, having reached the age entitling him to relief from active unitary service, he is, in accordance with the provisions of law, hereby placed upon the retired list of the Army, to date September 29, 1895, with all the pay and allowances belonging to his rank upon such retirement.

"It is with much regret that the President makes the anneamerement that the country is thus to less from the command of its Army this distinguished general, who has Gone so much for its boror and efficiency. His gallantic in war challenges the admiration of all his contarymen, while they will not fail its contaryment.

He gained was in a temporary military section in the city, which was paid for by his employer, young Miles went to the front as second licatenant in the Twenty-second Hassachusetts Volunteers. He rose through successive grades to that of major gallanties of the Army, the battle of the termination of the forties of the Army in the battle of the wilderness, change from the close of the hostilities he entered the regular army as colonel of the Fortieth lingalter
